

Idaho's Heritage: Preparing Historic Preservation Plans
American Planning Association, Idaho Chapter
2021 Conference

- Oneida County adopted a Historic Preservation Code in March 2019
- Assembled a Historic Preservation Committee
  - Chair, Jean Thomas
  - County Commissioner Bill Lewis is member/liaison
- Obtained a CLG grant from the Idaho SHPO

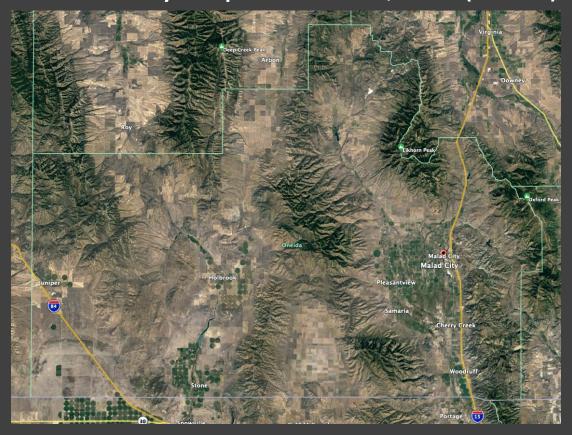

Main and Bannock Streets, Malad City, 1915

Where is Oneida County?

- County Population: 4,385 (2019)
- Malad City Population: 2,081 (2019)

FUNDING

- CLG Grant from Idaho SHPO
  - $12,000
- Local Funds
  - $1,000 from Oneida County Relic Preservation and Historical Society

TOTAL $13,000

- Additional Local Contribution
  - $5,000 from Oneida County Historic Preservation Committee in volunteer time

Samaria, Oneida County, Listed on the NRHP in 1979

TIMELINE

- February Hired consultant
- March Initial meeting
- April-June Public input/OCHPC discussions
- July-August Research/drafting
- Sept. 30 Project deadline
- Oct. 12 County Commission meeting

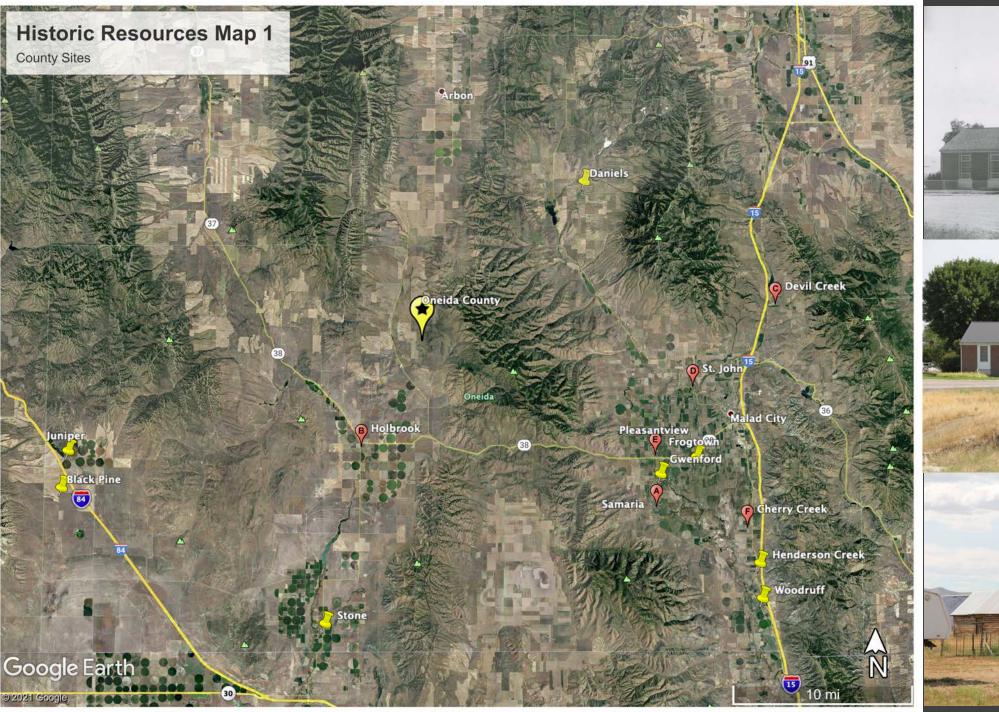

Oneida County Courthouse, constructed 1939; WPA project; Architect: Sundberg & Sundberg, Idaho Falls; NRHP 1987

SCOPE AND BROAD FOCUS

- Identify priorities and where to start
- Identify a common vision for Oneida County's history
- Pave the way to future grants
- Get public input
  - Surveys had 41% response rate
- Raise public awareness

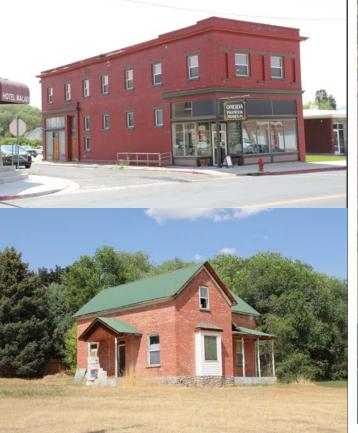

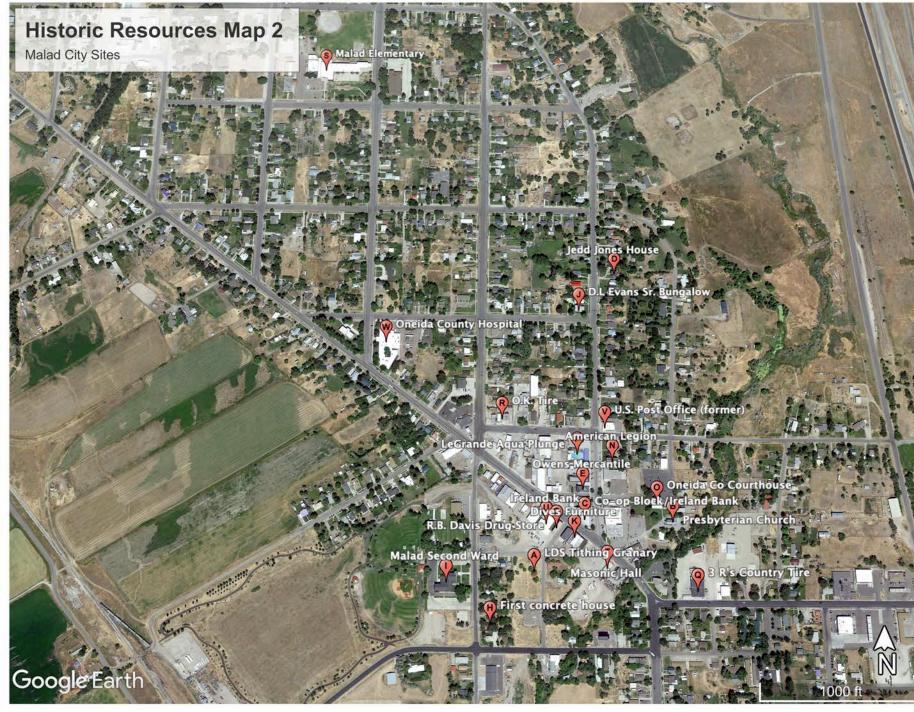

John "Sawdust" Williams Barns near Malad City

VISION

- Historic places bring people back in time to learn what life was like in the past.
- History is personal.
- Places should be preserved for the next generation.
- Oneida County history is rooted most firmly in pioneer and Welsh stories although everyone's history is important and will be preserved.
- History connects people to their ancestors and to others who lived in the past and influenced the present.

Main Street in Malad, 1930 ca.

PLAN GOALS

- Start with a geographically-focused area
  - Malad City CBD
- Survey and Designate
  - NRHP includes 6 individual sites, 1 historic district
- Provide Information to the Public
  - Historic markers
- Allow the Ordinance to Lead
  - Potential to collect demolition information
  - Work on sites in public ownership

Evans Co-op and J.N. Ireland & Co. Bank, 1893/1907; NRHP 1979

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Pioneer history needs to be a consistent focus
- Keeping the small town character is essential
- It's not too late
- There's a good foundation and community support to build upon

Attendees of the Malad Valley Welsh Festival tour historic cabins in Samaria.

THANK YOU!

Final plan available at

https://bit.ly/3AUuFoA

Kirk Huffaker

Preservation Strategies

Salt Lake City, Utah kirk@kirkhuffaker.com (801) 949-4040 kirkhuffaker.com